Chapter 1 by Story Wars

The clock struck 10 and i could already feel the soft fur coming out of my tan skin. My ears disappeared and catlike ones popped out of my head. My eyes turned bright blue to shiny gold and started having a black shades surrounding it. I turned to my friends... they were frozen with shock. All of there faces was pale as snow and their hair was straight as an arrow. With out hesitation i ran as fast as i could and disappeared into the night...

Chapter 2 by Catherine Grace (doctor who addict)

I ran. I didn't notice a few things. Like my friends calling after me. Or the fact that the voices faded very fast and my feet were skimming the ground. I was slightly aware that I had never gone that fast before.

I only stopped running when I became hip-deep in icy cold water.

Chapter 3 by Mockingjay

I felt my fur become damp. I shivered as I failed to notice the dark figure lurking within the trees. I've never really liked water, but know that if/when that had happened, I couldn't stand it. I shivered and scrambled to shore. My hair was straight as an arrow. My ears quivered in the icy winter breeze.
